100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description. I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1819.

Of twenty-five banks in the state of Ohio, the Western Herald informs us, there are at present but 6 or 7 which redeem their paper with specie.

A letter from a gentleman at Nashville states, that the stockholders of the Nashville Bank met on the 31st ult. and requested the president and directors to surrender the charter and wind up the business of that institution.

The Washington Bank at Lebannon, Ky. has stopped payment, and is about to wind up its concerns.

On Saturday the 31st ult. the citizens of Jefferson county, Ky. assembled at the different election precincts, (for the third time) agreeably to public notice, to take the voice of the county upon the expediency of a suspension of specie payments by the Bank of Kentucky and its branches—and, on taking a vote, it was found that about three to one were opposed to the suspension. HEALTH OF THE CITY.

The report of interments for the last week, given below, we hope will at once quiet all apprehensions as to the general health of the city—on a reference to our files, we find the number of deaths reported in the corresponding week of the last year to be sixty-six—BILIOUS, SIX. The anxiety which has prevailed in the public mind, was occasioned by a few highly bilious cases, produced by the state of the atmosphere in the immediate vicinity where they occurred. These having been officiously sent abroad by letters, created an unnecessary alarm at home.

REPORT OF INTERMENTS

In the city of Baltimore for the last week, ending Monday morning.

BOARD OF HEALTH, AUG. 18.

The Board of Health report ONE new case of yellow fever, this day.

JAMES A. MILLER, Clerk.

New-York, August 22.

On Saturday about one o'clock, the Steam Boat, Nautilus, on her way from Staten Island to New-York, discovered a boat at a distance upset, when Capt. De Forbes laudably made for her, and succeeded in taking from her bottom a woman, who had nearly perished, and picked up two children afloat. They were taken immediately on board the Nautilus, when the means made use of by Doctor Rogers succeeded in restoring one of the children. The other was too far gone.

[The above was handed to us by a passenger in the Nautilus. Since which we have obtained the following particulars:]

On Saturday, a short time before the accident, Mr. Philip Campbell, a custom-house bargeman, his wife and three children, and Miss Susan Palmer, his wife's sister, aged 22, started from Whitehall to take a sail in a small boat. The wind became fresh while they were out, the boat upset, and Mr. Campbell, Miss Palmer, and two children, were drowned. Mrs. Campbell, and her daughter aged about three years, were the only persons who escaped a watery grave, having been taken off the small boat. The bodies of Mr. Campbell and his sister-in-law have not yet been found. The boy lost was about seven years of age, and the child only 10 months.

Since the above was in type, we learn that the child which was supposed to have been restored, died at 12 o'clock on Saturday night. Thus it has been the will of Providence to spare only one of the family, Mrs. Campbell, whose distressed situation can better be imagined than described. [Gazette.

The Coroner was called on Saturday to view the body of Dennis Cady, aged 30 years, a native of the county of Monaghan, Ireland, who came to his death by drowning while in the act of bathing at Stuyvesant's Meadows. [Ibid.

Providence, (R. I.) Aug. 17.

MELANCHOLY.

On Friday last, in the afternoon, a stranger, clad in decent apparel, was seen to stop at one of the pumps, on the west side of the bridge. He then crossed the street, fell, and expired, without a groan or struggle. Medical aid was immediately afforded, but was of no avail; the spirit had fled. It appeared, from papers found with the deceased, & from marks on his clothes that his name was Josiah Robinson Duncan, that he was a native of Ireland; that he emigrated to this country some time since; and that he was by occupation a distiller. He had recommendations as a person of steady habits. It appears also, from a prayer book found on the deceased, that he has a wife and five children living in his native country. The verdict of the coroner's inquest was, that he died by drinking cold water, and by the visitation of God.

Washington, August 24.

Brigadier General James Miller has accepted the appointment of governor of the territory of Arkansas, and has, of course, resigned his commission in the army. [National Intelligencer.

FUNERALS.

The great expense and unnecessary parade attendant on funerals, has long been a subject of remark, and many persons who have suffered in their feelings and circumstances from the tyranny of fashion, have withheld from complaint in consequence of the peculiar delicacy of the cases. We observe in the last Montreal paper that a meeting is called to consult on a general reform in these particulars.

It appears by the communication of a lady in the last National Intelligencer, that at Washington City, the common hacks crowd round the door at the time & place appointed for a funeral, to take up all who attended, and afterwards a bill is presented, and a strong appeal made to the generosity of the surviving relatives. This one would suppose required an instant remedy.

In Boston it appears funerals are regulated by law, and no more than three hired carriages are permitted to attend.

We do not know that any legal steps could reach the desired reform—but it is evident that the community calls for a change. All will acknowledge that these expensive parades are incompatible with heart-felt grief, which naturally seeks retirement—and doubtless all will be gratified by a change more consistent with the solitude of the grave. [Bal. American.

New-York, August 20.

MARKET

We should suppose, says a correspondent, that the enormous price paid by the citizens for fruit and vegetables, would induce distant farmers and gardners to bring these articles to this city. A large quantity of small Peaches were sold by a person this morning to the huxters at six dollars per bushel; Plumbs at 4; Pears at 5; Potatoes at 2; Beats, Beans, Corn, Squashes, Turnips, &c. all proportionably high, and of inferior quality. [Com. Adv.

RYE COFFEE.

Try it—A writer in the Plough Boy, who signs "Economy," says, that he has been assured by a lady of the first respectability, that she had used rye coffee in her family for one month, and that the cost had been but eighteen cents—that none of her family (except one servant who was in the secret) knew but that it was coffee of the best kind.

Directions.—Put a quantity of rye into warm water, rub it well through the hands, then rinse it well in clean cold water, dry it, and then burn and grind it in the usual method.

DOMESTIC SUGAR AND MOLASSES.

The Woodstock, Va. paper of the 13th inst. says, on Friday next, Mr. Whitson, one of the proprietors of the right for this county, intends to manufacture some of the above articles, at Mr. Jacob Brown's about six miles below this place. Those persons who have doubted the quality of the sugar will have an opportunity to examine for themselves.

Pittsburgh, (Penn.) August 30.

The depredations now committing by the grass-hoppers in some parts of the country, are truly singular and alarming. Many farmers have commenced cutting their oats perfectly green, and many meadows are shaved completely smooth. Fortunately they do not fly high enough to obscure the sun as the locust sometimes do in Africa; in other respects, however, they are nearly as bad. An instance or two has occurred, where a hat, which was accidentally left in the field, was entirely destroyed before morning.

Pittsburgh, August 17.

We do not recollect ever to have witnessed such a continuation of oppressively hot weather, as we have had for the last three or four weeks; the average of the thermometer must have been considerably above ninety; the nights have been nearly as oppressive as the day.—As some compensation for this disagreeable weather, the neighboring country has been visited by many fine showers, which, with the great heat has tended in some measure to restore the corn, which a short time back promised to be worth nothing.

On Tuesday the 17th inst. a dog was killed, in the vicinity of the Battle Monument, Baltimore, in the highest paroxysm of the hydrophobia.—The animal foamed violently, and made several attempts to bite the pavement. He fell, and a courageous fellow citizen, with a stake, put an end to the life of the infuriated animal.

COMMERCIAL.

Letters from Liverpool, of July 2, received at Philadelphia, state that cotton continued gradually to improve in demand; the markets had assumed more spirit, and sales effected at advanced prices of uplands and Orleans; 360 bales of uplands were sold on board ship, unseen, July the 1st, at 12d.; 13d. was given for very fair, and a further advance of 1-2d. or 1d. was expected by some holders. Little, however, was doing on the 2d July in cotton. Wheat and flour were somewhat on the rise; the former, from U. S. 8s. 6d. to 9s. 6. The business in tobacco was increasing, but prices had not improved. Carolina rice was in fair demand. Ashes were dull, and declining. Quercitron bark, Philadelphia, 17 to 22. Tobacco, lb. York and James river, 3 1-2d. a 7 1-2d.; Rappahannock, 3 1-2d. a 5 1-2d.; Potomac, none; Georgia & Carolina, 3 1-2d. a 5 1 2d.; Kentucky leaf, 3 1-2d.; Maryland, uncertain; Stemmed, 5d. a 6d.

Business in London, June 29, was also improving; sales of St. Domingo coffee were brisk, at 106 to 108s. Sugars were in good demand.

The inhabitants of Halifax, Nova Scotia, are highly displeased at the British government for moving the naval establishment from that place to Bermuda. One of the editors says, "the people view this proceeding as a prelude to the resignation of these provinces by the British government; and adds that it has long been the opinion of well informed men, that this plan would be adopted whenever government contemplated the loss of these colonies." He concludes by zealously recommending an improvement in the resources of the country. [Baltimore Morning Chron.

Extract from the Evidence

Of Alexander Baring, Esquire, before the secret committee of the house of commons, appointed to consider of the state of the Bank, and of the expediency of a resumption of cash payments, (given on the 25th March, 1819.)

Supposing peace to be maintained in India, and the overtrading to that part of the world, both from this country and the U. States, to be checked, as it naturally will be by the ordinary consequences of overtrading, do you not think that there is more probability that in the next two or three years bullion may be imported from Asia to Europe, than that it should continue to be sent from Europe to Asia, especially if the supply of Europe from the mines of South America should continue on a diminished scale? I should certainly think that less bullion will go from Europe to Asia; perhaps none at all may go; or it is even possible that a small balance may be brought from thence, but I should think the latter case not very probable. An article which has lately come in great abundance from India, cotton, will probably not come at all, since the cotton of America is reduced to its present rates.

Extract of a letter from an American gentleman at Fayal, dated 13th July.

"The Russian frigate Kamschatka, that has been nearly three years on a voyage of discovery, stopped here on her return home, and remained three weeks. The commander, Golowrin, is celebrated from the circumstance of his captivity several years in Japan, and his account of that country, now passing the rounds of the periodical publications. He, with the principal officers and scientific gentlemen of his suite, were entertained by Mr. Dabney, the U. States consul, at the celebration of Independence, at his house, and all expressed the highest respect for our country and republican institutions. The dinner was succeeded by a ball, attended by 120 ladies and gentlemen, highly gratifying to the Russian guests.

"The landscape painter did the consul the favor to sketch that part of the town and harbor where the attack on the brig Gen. Armstrong took place, which he has forwarded to Capt. Reid, who so gallantly defended that vessel."

It is understood that the want of such a drawing has retarded the execution of an engraving, representing that extraordinary action. [Boston paper.

ROADS—An Extract.

"The best road I ever saw is from Fort St. George to St. Thomas' Mount, in the East Indies—a distance of about 7 miles, over a sandy flat country. It is made of bricks, pounded very fine, and mixed with water to the consistency of very soft mortar and spread in a similar manner; the heat of the sun very soon renders it so hard that heavy carriages pass over it, without making the least impression; the road being well raised in the centre, and a free passage obtained for the water on both sides."

Extracts from late English papers.

AFFECTING CASE OF SUICIDE.

London, July 5.

On Friday an inquest was held at the Bell Tavern, Walworth, on the body of Mrs. Ann Haycock, aged 50. During the last six months the deceased has been in a state of despondency, and was removed to the house of her son in East Lane, Walworth, for the benefit of her health. On Tuesday morning early she arose and went into the garden; and when sought after to come to her breakfast, she was found suspended to a high tree, by a piece of flannel round her neck and over that two strong pieces of cord, by which she had been strangled. The body was cold, and life quite extinct. There are some affecting circumstances connected with the death of this unfortunate lady. About a year and a half ago, a young man paid his addresses to her daughter, a very accomplished young girl; but neither of them having wherewithal to live respectably, it was agreed that the suitor should go to India for a while, to seek his fortune; a situation was procured for him, and after taking an affectionate leave of the old lady and his intended bride, he set out on his voyage. Of this young man the deceased was very fond, and was often heard to say, that his return home, and union with her daughter, would be the most desirable event she wished to witness in this world.

About six months ago, news arrived that this youth, the object of her hopes, upon whom she looked with such motherly affection, had met an untimely end at Calcutta! Every inquiry tended to strengthen this supposition: and the shock which the feelings of the deceased and her daughter suffered by this intelligence, can be but indifferently described. The daughter was wasted with grief, and the mother was seized with a temporary derangement, which at length led to the melancholy catastrophe we have detailed. The next day after the death of the deceased, a most remarkable incident occurred, which, from the short time that intervened, caused a feeling of still greater regret, and, although it caused a pleasant gleam of joy, brightened the sorrows of the deceased's relatives to an unusual pitch—it was a letter from the young man who was reported to have been hanged in India: in which he stated, that he was in excellent health, and that his success had been so great, that he was soon coming home to share with those he held dear, the produce of his industry. The receipt of this letter one day sooner would have saved the life of the deceased. The Jury immediately returned a verdict of Insanity.

Mr. Sowerberry, in a notice to the Horticultural Society in London, states his experience of the beneficial effects of watering fruit trees well at the time of the setting of the fruit. "Thus," he says, "a tree which in 1814 produced a very few pears of about half a pound each, in 1815 (by this method) produced a great number nearly double that weight.

The last European war in which England was engaged, is calculated to have cost her two thousand and forty millions, equal to eleven thousand four hundred tons of gold.

It is mentioned in the Liverpool Mercury of the 18th June, that a vessel had lately arrived at that port which fell in with an iceberg after seven days sail from Jamaica; and that two days before she neared this frozen mountain, the thermometer on board fell from 60 to 44.

Whilst the 7th Hussars lately passed by the Marquis of Anglesea's seat, near Litchfield, on their route to Manchester, they were entertained by the Marquis at his mansion, with good old English cheer.—Whilst the soldiers were parading on the lawn in front of the house, immediately before their departure, a somewhat singular appearance presented itself in the persons of the Marquis, his brother, (a captain in the Navy,) Lord Uxbridge, (the Marquis's son,) and the daughter of the Marquis.—The first wanted a leg which he lost at Waterloo, the captain an arm, the noble Lord Uxbridge was on crutches, being wounded in the knee, and the fair lady was minus her right hand, which she lost while attending her husband at one of the battles in Spain.

A letter from Colombo, says—"Upwards of 800 men and more than 30 officers fell victims to the climate, during our late war with the Kandyads. Many men lost their lives from the bites of leeches, which swarm in the jungles; 25 men of the 18th Madras regiment have lost a leg each from the bite of this disagreeable and troublesome little animal, which, in spite of every precaution, will make its way into your boots, or under your clothes, whilst marching during the night.

A woman in England lately defrauded a hospital by pretending to be in the family way, and afterwards to have had a still born child. For the last purpose, she shrouded a figure made of wood.

A Dutch ambassador at a certain court, receiving at his departure the portrait of the king enriched with diamonds, asked what this fine thing might be worth. Being told that it might amount to about two thousand pounds,—"And why," cries he, "cannot his majesty keep the picture and give me the money?"

RURAL SKETCH.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman on a tour through the Eastern States, published in the Boston Centinel.

"We ought not to omit the remark, that no class of people appear more happy at their labor, or more contented with their lot than the cultivators of the soil; and that they look beyond the clouds for the source of the rain which fructifies their fields, and below the furrow for the Great Spring of vegetation. In passing through any part of New-England,

"Where Freeborn thousands their own fields possess, Where tyrants awe not and no Lords oppress,"

the traveller will every where see willing hands and cheerful hearts, cultivating a "sometimes hard, but still a generous soil"—and in the group, will find ministers and people, magistrates and yeomen, generals and privates, all engaged in the same field—where no whips are used to compel exertion; but where toil is reciprocally shared, and where

"Landlords and workmen, each familiar greet,
Share the same bowl, nor taste distinguished meat."

We were involuntarily led into this digression, by the recollection of the many hundreds of hay-makers we saw scattered over the extensive meadows which border the Connecticut; and among whom we recognized many legislators, and generals.—It was about noon when we passed the Hadley meadows, and the hay makers were collecting in groups, under trees and waggons, and hay-stacks, to take dinner, with appetites which the sons and daughters of luxury and indolence would give worlds to possess. The rich interval lands on the Deerfield and Connecticut rivers are celebrated for their fertility, and it is well known to history, that the aboriginals of the soil fought with more fury to retain them than any other parts of their great patrimony. They are worth fighting for.

At a very fine inn at Northampton we noticed a glazed case, in which were deposited many articles of finely worked muslin, and other household manufactures; and on enquiry was informed, that they were placed there for sale, by a Society of young ladies, of which the daughter of a late worthy Governor of Massachusetts was the directress, who met weekly to produce them; and that their avails are sacredly appropriated to the education of pious and indigent young men, to qualify them to become Missionaries. It was gratifying to travellers to be thus able to contribute their mite to such a pious and praise worthy object; and we learnt with satisfaction, that those from Boston are among the largest purchasers of the articles thus consecrated to promote the salvation of souls.—They are pronounced by judges to be excellent samples of needle work."

From Barren's Poems, entitled "Woman."

FEMALE MODESTY.

To guard that virtue, to supply the place
Of courage, wanting in her gentle race,
Lo, Modesty was given—mysterious spell,
Whose blush can shame, whose panic can repel.

Strong, by the very weakness it betrays,
It sheds a mist before our fiery gaze;
The panting apprehension, quick to feel
The shrinking grace, that fain would grace conceal.

The beautiful rebuke, that looks surprise;
The gentle vengeance of averted eyes;
These are its arms, and these supreme prevail;
Love pauses, Vice retracts his glazing tale.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled, the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to dylineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
